

Mayo School is a kindergarten to grade 12 school, community hall, gymnasium and satellite campus of Yukon College located in Mayo, Yukon. This 3300 sq. m. wood frame school serves a small isolated community of 500 residents and is located 550 km. north of Whitehorse. Home to the Nacho Nyak Dun First Nation, the Mayo Replacement School is designed to meet the needs of the entire community as well as students. As the largest structure in town it serves many additional roles including a centre for community and first nation ceremonies, public library, disaster relief centre and recreation centre.
