

The Old Fire Hall is a heritage building located in downtown Whitehorse. The existing heavy timber structure was repaired and enhanced by the use of carefully chosen materials and colours. A new modern storefront entry and glazing wall compliment the existing structure without interfering with its beauty. The hall provides office space and a gathering hall which is used for community events on the Yukon River.

OLD FIRE HALL RENOVATION

WHITEHORSE, YUKON