

For this 13 unit mixed-use development, Kobayashi + Zedda Architects designed a three-storey building with commercial offices on the ground floor and two storey residences on the upper two floors. Developed and constructed by sister company Zeko Design Build, the project replaced two vacant lots with a vibrant, high density urban building befitting a downtown setting.

The $2.5 million project was completed in 2006.

MIXED USE NEW CAMBODIA

WHITEHORSE, YUKON

